Management Insights

Two of the five KPIs met their targets: the rewards member return rate (30%) and tasting option purchase rate (20%). However, the tasting sample rating (3.5/5) and customer value rating (3.8/5) were below their targets, while food costs (40%) exceeded the 35% limit. Local customers also gave slightly higher ratings than visitors (3.67 compared to 3.43), although the sample size was small. Based on these results, Montien Thai should review customer feedback and ingredient costs to identify areas for improvement before expanding the tasting option.
